

In the face of historic threats to civil rights and civil liberties, your ACLU’s mission has never been more important. The ACLU of Massachusetts is profoundly grateful for our community — individuals, law firms, foundations — whose investment fuels the ACLU to fight back in the face of these unprecedented attacks on our democracy.

ACLU of Massachusetts and ACLU Foundation of Massachusetts
FY25 Combined Revenue and Expenses

Revenue

■ Individual Contributions	$6,532,476
■ Memberships	$2,998,780
■ Grants	$795,875
■ Bequests	$605,862
■ Interest/Other Income	$2,391,977
■ Legal Awards	$179,503

Expenses

■ Program	$7,342,603
■ Fundraising	$735,794
■ Management/Admin	$1,062,544

For comprehensive audited financials for the ACLUM’s Fiscal Year 2025, click on the links below:

ACLU of Massachusetts | ACLU Foundation of Massachusetts

Invest in the future of civil rights

Gifts to the ACLU of Massachusetts (ACLUM) are not tax-deductible and support our legislative work at both the federal and local levels. Gifts to the ACLU Foundation of Massachusetts (ACLUFM) are tax-deductible and support our litigation, communications, and public education efforts.

There are many ways to make a gift to the ACLU of Massachusetts; to learn about all of the different ways to give, visit aclum.org/ways-give. Please direct any questions to development@aclum.org.