Civil Action No. 1:26-cv-11549-IT

MEMORANDUM & ORDER

July 13, 2026

TALWANI, D.J.

In this action challenging Executive Order 14399, Ensuring Citizenship Verification and Integrity in Federal Elections (the “EO”), 91 Fed. Reg. 17125 (Mar. 31, 2026), eight non-profit organizations involved with voter education and advocacy (collectively, “Plaintiff Organizations”)¹ have moved against Defendants U.S. Postal Service (“USPS”), Postmaster General, Deputy Postmaster General, USPS Board of Governors Chairwoman, USPS Board of Governors Vice Chairman, and USPS Board of Governor Members to preliminarily enjoin

implementation of Section 3 of the EO. Pls.’ Mot. for Prelim. Inj. [Doc. No. 73]. Defendants, joined by Intervenor-Defendants,² oppose. Defs.’ Mem. ISO Mot. to Dismiss and Opp’n to Pls.’ Mot. for Prelim. Inj. [Doc. No. 128]; Intervenor’s Mem. ISO Mot. to Dismiss and Opp’n to Pls.’ Mot. for Prelim. Inj. [Doc. No. 125].³

On July 1, 2026, in separate litigation, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia preliminarily enjoined USPS’s implementation of Section 3 of the EO (the “D.C. Injunction”). See NAACP v. USPS, No. 1:20-cv-02295-EGS (D.D.C. July 1, 2026), Dkt. No. 181. Where the D.C. Injunction obviates Plaintiff Organizations’ assertion of irreparable harm, the court DENIES, without prejudice, Plaintiff Organizations’ Motion [Doc. No. 73]. See González-Droz v. González-Colon, 573 F.3d 75, 79 (1st Cir. 2009) (“irreparable harm constitutes a necessary threshold showing for an award of preliminary injunctive relief”).

If the D.C. Injunction is stayed pending appeal, or USPS promulgates a final rule implementing Section 3 of the EO, Plaintiff Organizations may file a renewed motion for a preliminary injunction. Defendants and Intervenor-Defendants shall file any opposition within seven calendar days of Plaintiff Organizations’ renewed filing.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
