LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Social Security Administration, Office of Disability Adjudication and Review

Administrative Law Judge, Boston MA

February 2016- present

Adjudicate disability claims pursuant to Titles II and XVI of the Social Security Act. Preside over all aspects of the adjudicatory process. Responsible for holding hearings, evaluating evidence, reviewing the administrative record, administering oaths, questioning witnesses, ruling on motions, issuing subpoenas, and rendering written decisions regarding conclusions of fact and law.

Social Security Administration, Office of the General Counsel

Supervisory Attorney, Boston, MA

September 2012 – February 2016

Supervise a team of assistant regional counsel and paralegals in the Agency's Office of the General Counsel. Review and approve requests for voluntary remand to the Appeals Council. Review and edit motions in support of summary judgment filed in disability determination appeals before federal district courts. Oversee the personnel litigation workload for Region I. Assist attorneys in preparing for hearing and arbitration by reviewing motions for summary judgment, developing litigation strategies, and drafting opening statements and cross-examination questions.

Assistant Regional Counsel, Boston, MA

March 2009 - August 2012

Defend the Agency in disability determination appeals in federal district courts. Appointed as a Special Assistant United States Attorney (SAUSA) in the Western District of North Carolina and the District of Vermont. Draft answers to complaints, motions and memoranda in support of summary judgment, and responses to petitions for attorney's fees under the Equal Access to Justice Act (EAJA). Designated as a labor and employment specialist in the office, representing the Agency in employment discrimination cases and personnel action disputes before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), the Merit System Protection Board (MSPB), and arbitration. Advise Labor Management Relations (LMR) on the legal sufficiency of proposed adverse actions. Negotiate and draft settlement agreements on behalf of the Agency in consultation with the settlement authority. Provide training to managers and management representatives on the reasonable accommodation process and the theories of discrimination. Additional responsibilities include drafting internal legal opinions, responding to subpoena requests for Agency records or testimony, and addressing complaints of representative misconduct.

U.S. Army Judge Advocate General's Corps

Command Judge Advocate, Fort Sam Houston, TX

June 2007 - February 2009

Served as the primary legal advisor to the Brigade Commander on all legal matters to include administrative law, employment law, fiscal law, military justice, ethics, and intelligence and operational law. Advised the Brigade Commander and coordinated with human resources to draft adverse actions involving civilian employees. Represented the Agency and prevailed in all cases before the MSPB and EEOC. Issued legal opinions on questions pertaining to fiscal law, expenditure of appropriated funds, interpretation of federal guidelines and regulations, and release of Agency documents under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). Supervised and rated the paralegal specialists assigned to my unit.

Administrative/Operational Law Attorney, Fort Huachuca, AZ

November 2006 - June 2007

Advised investigating officers in accordance with Army Regulation (AR) 15-6 and Article 32 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ). Served as the legal advisor to the Defense Coordinating Officer for FEMA Region IX at Travis Air Force Base. Ensured timely and accurate filing of all Confidential Financial Disclosure Reports (OGE 450s) and Standard Form (SF) 278s for Fort Huachuca. Trained Soldiers and civilian personnel in government and acquisition ethics. Represented the Army in cases before the EEOC.

Trial Counsel, Fort Huachuca, AZ

April 2006 - November 2006

Represented the Brigade in all criminal law proceedings to include courts-martial, guilty pleas, and administrative separation boards. Processed over 50 Article 15s and administrative chapters. Appointed as a SAUSA to prosecute all civilian criminal offenses within our jurisdiction.

ARMY_0000052

Legal Assistance Attorney, Fort Huachuca, AZ

May 2005 - April 2006
