Monday 1/14/13 at approximately 1100 hrs. Dracut Police Department requested NEMLEC SWAT and negotiators to respond to Dracut for a reported Suicidal Male with a handgun.

At 1053 hrs on 1/14/13 [REDACTED] walked into Dracut PD to report that she just fled her home at [REDACTED] Surrey Lane after her husband pulled out a handgun and threatened suicide. [REDACTED] has an LTC issued by Dracut PD and according to [REDACTED] possesses several firearms. [REDACTED] left work earlier after receiving an email from her husband saying he was going to "blow his brains out and what room in their home was her favorite". [REDACTED] had been abusing alcohol for years and it had become much worse recently. He has also been treated for depression and anxiety. [REDACTED] stated to [REDACTED] after she suggested she was calling the police, "don't, I'll be dead before they get here."

Dracut PD officers arrived on scene at [REDACTED] Surrey Lane, set up a perimeter and staging for SWAT officers. Shortly after the first several NEMLEC SWAT officers arrived on scene, the subject walked out of the residence and surrendered to Dracut officers. Dracut and SWAT officers then conducted a protected sweep of the residence. The subject, [REDACTED] was transported to LGH under a section 12. At this point, NEMLEC officers were paged to cancel further response to Dracut. NEMLEC and Dracut PD officers on scene cleared.
