CIVIL ACTION
NO. 17-10154-NMG

DECLARATION OF MILTON VALENCIA

Milton Valencia deposes and says:

1. My name is Milton Valencia. I am a reporter for The Boston Globe newspaper.
2. I have been reporting on this case, along with other Globe reporters, since it was filed on January 28, 2017. Because I am not able to access the electronic filings remotely through Pacer, on February 1, 2017, I went to the courthouse in order to examine recent filings on a computer terminal in the clerk’s office. I was told that I could look at the filings but could not print them.
3. I and other Globe reporters are asking for the ability to print or copy public court records in this case (i.e., court records that have not been sealed) in order to better inform the public about the contents of the records and the details of the dispute being resolved by the court and, depending upon the contents of the court records, to make them available to the public.
4. I and other Globe reporters also are asking for the ability to examine and print the electronic filings remotely through Pacer. The inability to do so prevents us from reporting on filings in a timely fashion, particularly when the filings are made close to or after the hours in which the clerk's office is open to the public.

Signed under the penalties of perjury this 1st day of February, 2017

/s/ Milton Valencia
